

ONE THOUSAND WHITE ONIONS

We are proud to announce the release of our book "One Thousand White Onions – A history of caring for children since 1865", and have pleasure in advising that it is available for sale in Hardcover for $75.00 and Softcover for $40.00. It would be a valuable addition to your library of local history books.

Front Cover

"One Thousand White Onions - a history of caring for children since 1865" as written by author Shirley Davies - details the history of the organisation that commenced in Melbourne in 1865. The book details early care organisations in Melbourne caring for children. It tells of the Melbourne Home cnr Latrobe & Exhibition Streets, how the organisation was financed then and the move to Frankston in 1901. The book details the operations, difficulties and highlights of the organisation's 140 years of existence under the names of The Melbourne Ragged Boys Home, The Minton Boys Home, the Menzies Home for Boys and The Menzies Homes for Children, highlighting the current services of Menzies Inc. This 180 page book is richly illustrated with many photos never previously published. It contains reminiscences of "old boys" as well as contributions from previous Directors of The Menzies Homes for Children. The Foreword is by Associate Professor Dorothy Scott OAM. It contains an index as well as a listing of some names of children who were cared for by the organisation since the nineteenth century.
